E. R. Gavin, Esq.,

President, Canadian Club,

Fort William, Ont.

Dear Mr. Gavin:

I should like very much to address the Fort William Canadian Club once again, but the only possible chance would be on my homeward trip. I could not take a day off on my way out as I shall be very busy at that time, but if it were possible for me to come down to Fort William in the morning, arriving there before the luncheon, and spending the afternoon, and taking the train again at night, I think I might manage it. I am not quite sure of the dates, but probably it would have to be on Thursday, the 23rd of October.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Sir Robert Falconer,
President of University,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Yours of September 18 received. In reply would say that there are two trains arriving from Winnipeg before noon, and there is a train leaving here about 9 P. M in the evening, so there will be very little waste of time in addressing our club at a mid-day luncheon on your homeward trip.

We appreciate very much the honor you are doing this club by accepting this invitation. We are holding this date, October 23, for your visit.

If you could advise a week beforehand the subject of your address it would be much appreciated.

We would also like to know which train you will arrive on as we would like to meet you at the station. Again thanking you for accepting this invitation, and looking forward with much pleasure to your visit, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
President, E. R. Garvin

Sir Robert Falconer,
Pres. of University,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Seen by the program of the National Educational Conference being held in Winnipeg next month that you are one of the speakers, we take this as an opportune time to again extend to you our heartiest invitation to address the members of our Canadian Club at a noon-day luncheon.

By consulting the C. P. R. time-table you will find that you will be able to make a stop-over for a noonday luncheon with very little loss of time to yourself, on either your west-bound or homeward trip.

Trusting you will favor us with an early acceptance of this invitation, I remain,

Yours most sincerely,

Pres. E. R. Gaines

H. H. Gavin, Esq.,
President, Canadian Club,
Fort William.

Dear Mr. Gavin:

I hope to arrive at Fort William in the morning of Thursday, October 23rd at ten o'clock from Winnipeg, and must leave that night to return. Make what arrangements you will there except that I wish to meet the graduates of the University of Toronto while I am in Fort William.

Yours sincerely,

President.
